

AFRICA WEB3 INSTITUTE

Media Kit

Driving Digital Asset policy, regulatory frameworks, and market infrastructure for Africa's Web3 economy

About AWI

The Africa Web3 Institute (AWI) is an independent policy, research, and capacity-building organisation focused on blockchain technology, digital assets, and Africa's economic transformation.

We bridge the gap between regulatory policy, financial infrastructure, digital innovation, and cross-border trade to deliver practical frameworks for governments, regulators, and commercial markets.

Mission

To advance the responsible adoption of blockchain and digital assets through policy development, research, and institutional education.

Vision

To position Africa as a global leader in sovereign digital financial infrastructure.

Core Focus Areas

- Policy & Regulation: Digital assets and VASP (Virtual Asset Service Provider) compliance.
- Research: Stablecoins, Real-World Asset (RWA) tokenisation, and cross-border payments.
- Education & Capacity Building: Tailored programmes for regulators, journalists, and institutions.
- Ecosystem Development: High-level convenings and strategic partnerships.

Flagship Initiatives

- Monthly African Stablecoin Adoption Report (MASAR): Monthly data on regional stablecoin trends.

- Africa Web3 Policy & Innovation Index: Benchmarking regulatory progress across the continent.
- Web3 Policy Roundtables: Closed-door dialogues between industry leaders and policymakers.
- Journalists' VASP Workshop: Professional training on digital asset reporting.
- State of Web3 Africa (Quarterly Reports)
- African RWA Opportunity Map (Africa's Tokenizable Intelligence Mapping)
- Francophone Africa Web3 Ecosystem Map
